

JOE A. OAKES
FINE ARTIST
INSTRUCTOR

Painting Workshop in Mexico

Please join me as I take my fun, informative painting workshop on the road!

Open yourself up to a whole new painting experience in Ajijic, Mexico. This friendly little town is home to many expats and Canadians while still retaining its Mexican charm. It is located on Lake Chapala in the state of Jalisco - home of Mariachis and tequila.

You will have plenty of inspiration in Ajijic with its brightly colored buildings, scenic lake, beautiful people and near perfect weather!

This relaxed and informative workshop is designed for everyone, all skill levels are welcome. This well structured but light, fun experience will include painting both indoors and outdoors.

The goal for each of my workshops is to inspire you to be creative. Whether that means finishing one painting or starting a lifelong adventure in art. So, be a part of the fun and let's paint!

Lodging at Hotel Casa Blanca, continental breakfast and two dinners are included. The hotel itself abounds with subject matter. One day of the workshop will be spent taking a drive to a nearby town for a change of scenery.

Join me for what will be an unforgettable painting experience in Ajijic, Mexico.

Date: March 7 to March 11, 2012

Cost: $700 per person with deposit before 12/31/2011. $750 after 12/31/2011. Non-painting significant others welcome at $550 before 12/31/2011. $600 after 12/31/ 2011.

Deposit: $350 per person

Balance: Due January 30, 2012

Included: Lodging for Wednesday afternoon through Sunday morning, breakfasts, welcome and farewell dinners. Ground transportation to and from the hotel at arrival and departure and for half-day drive to another town. Airfare is not included.

Please call 760-861-4796 or email joakes13@verizon.net for more information or to register. Also, please visit www.joeoakes.com for updates and to view my work.

