Hello friends, family, and awesome alumnae!
The spring semester has begun for the William and Mary Women’s Chorus, and a busy semester it shall be! Our season began at once, when we were invited to perform at the New Grafton Baptist Church for an event celebrating the life and works of Martin Luther King Jr. Next on our calendar is our annual fundraiser, Women in Music, which will take place this year on February 15th. The show will feature WMWC as well as musicians and dancers from the campus and community. Then, in late February, we are thrilled to welcome the Black Sea Hotel, a balkan singing group, to a workshop. We are also looking forward to our annual Spring Tour as well as our upcoming joint concerts with other choral groups on campus and with the Williamsburg Women’s Chorus.

Thank you for your continuing support of Women’s Chorus! We hope to see you at one of our events in the coming months. Please check out our website at http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/womenschorus/home for more information.

Concerts
Saturday, April 5th: William and Mary Women’s Chorus will be singing with the Williamsburg Women’s Chorus, a community group, at the Williamsburg Presbyterian Church. The concert begins at 8pm, and features performances by both groups, as well as combined pieces.
Thursday, April 24th, and Saturday, April 26: The annual Choral Spring Concerts, featuring WMWC, the Choir, and the Botetourt Chamber Singers, will be held in Phi Beta Kappa hall and begin at 8pm.
