

Zeit Zaatar

[go together like arts and social justice]

presents...

Zeit, Zaatar, named for the delicious combination of thyme and olive oil in Arab cuisine, is an art performance & workshop series which centers on social justice issues and aims to build awareness, cultural appreciation, and artistic skills in our communities.

PHOTO CREDIT: Kimara Dixon

featuring Leyya Tawil

Leyya Mona Tawil is a dance artist, educator, and the artistic director of DANCE ELIXIR. Her collaborative works are supported by residencies and performance engagements throughout the states, Europe and the Middle East. DANCE ELIXIR's international highlights include presentations at the Syrian National Opera House (Damascus), CESTA/Spektrum (Czech Republic) and Studio Emad Eddin (Cairo).

Leyya received a BDA from the University of Michigan (UM)-Ann Arbor and an MFA from Mills College-Oakland. Leyya teaches workshops worldwide and also co-directs TAC; a venue for contemporary performance in Oakland, California. - danceElixirLIVE.org

Embodying COMMUNITY SAFETY through Dance Performance and Workshop

Join us for this exciting dance performance & workshop! Guest speakers will lead a discussion on how safety and violence is experienced by our (Arab) communities, how it impacts us, and how it can be addressed through the medium of dance. Leyya Tawil will perform, discuss her dance empowerment work locally and in the Arab World and lead an optional movement practice!

Sat. Feb. 4th 4:30-6:30pm

@ Dance Mission Theater,

3316 24th Street, SF

(across the street from BART)

A collaboration between
ARAB RESOURCES & ORGANIZING CENTRE
AROC
المرکز العربي للموارد
CULTURAL & COMMUNITY CENTER

Sponsored by a grant from
SAN FRANCISCO
SIF
AIC
ARTS COMMISSION

info@araborganizing.org or (415) 664-2200

Fragrance Free: Please make events accessible to people with chemical intolerance by refraining from wearing scented products.