

THE LIGHT AT THE END OF THE TUNNEL

PLANNING FOR HIGH-SPEED RAIL IN ORANGE COUNTY AND SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Continental Breakfast Served – 9:00 am

1. Welcome – 9:15 am

Sarah Catz, Director, Center for Urban Infrastructure

Gary Brahm, Brandman University Chancellor

2. Opening Remarks: Present and Future of High-Speed Rail

Speaker: Curt Pringle, Chairman, CHSRA and Mayor of Anaheim

3. Global Positioning: High-Speed Rail around the Globe

Speaker: Tom Downs, Chairman, Rail Division, Veolia Transportation

4. Benefits of High-Speed Rail

Speaker: Sarah Catz, Director, Center for Urban Infrastructure

Adam Christian, Co-Author, "Thinking Ahead: High-Speed Rail in Southern California"

5. How Do We Pay For High-Speed Rail?

- Do Public Private Partnerships Make Sense?

Speaker: Mike Schneider, Managing Partner, InfraConsult

- Foreign Investors

Speaker: Kent Carl, President, Triarm International

Moderator: John Haussmann, Director, Center for Urban Infrastructure

6. Federal Strategy

Speaker: Loretta Sanchez, Member, U.S. House of Representatives

Lunch Served – 11:30 am

7. Getting Connected: Defining an Effective Intermodal Strategy – 12:00 pm

Speakers: Richard Flierl, Center for Connective Architecture, Principal, Cooper Carry; Emile Haddad, President & CEO, FivePoint Communities; Will Kempton, CEO, OCTA; Art Leahy, CEO LAMTA; Larry Agran, Member, Irvine City Council
Moderator: Peter Buffa, Member, OCTA Board of Directors

8. What are the Solutions? – 1:45 pm

Speaker: Tom Umberg, Vice Chair, CHSRA

SPECIAL THANKS TO OUR SPONSORS