This interactive music class is designed especially for infants/toddlers, 6 months old to 2 & 1/2 year-olds, and their parents. Students will be stimulated by listening to songs, playing music games, doing movement activities, and manipulating musical instruments. Parents do not need prior musical experience. The class is a fun way to be creative and active one-on-one with your child. Come join master music educator and mom, Julie Maragos, for 8 weeks of a music curriculum that is sure to keep you and your child in tune! A music CD will be supplied to continue the fun at home.

Julie Maragos has been a music educator and a private instructor of voice and piano for 16 years. She is certified in the Kodaly method and has taken courses in the Gordon method for early childhood music. Julie Maragos has a Master of Education degree from Cabrini College and a Master of Music Education from Loyola University in Maryland. She is also the mother of a two-year-old who will be joining her in class.

*The class is a part of Ancillae-Assumpta Academy's co-curricular activities. Contact Jane Diorio at (215)885-1636 ext 182 or jdiorio@ancillae.org for information. Return form below with payment to register for this class.
