

OM JAI JAI SAI MAA

Hail To The Divine Mother Within

Sai Maa's Message about "The Journey of Profound Healing"

This program is remarkable, truly remarkable. It's a powerful long lasting, life changing event. It's a program which transforms human consciousness. It's an opportunity to serve within yourself your own growth.

People come from all over the world to a place which is completely safe to look very closely at their life, meaning they look at their shadows and their light as well. They see how much they've been harming themselves and their loved ones whom they say they care for so much, whom they do sincerely care so much about.

Each of you in this program can realize that it's time to stop sabotaging your dreams, to realize that this program ends your personal pain and suffering so you can move into a direct experience with life of all lives. The more you become aware of the "junk" or shadows, the more vulnerable you become, the more open you become, the more you can acknowledge, accept, welcome the darkness, the shadows. The more these places within you get emptied, the more readily available you are for Life, to live a vibrant existence, to simply exist; yes, to simply exist. Huge, huge transformation, healing at its root, healing at every level.

This is a moment of readiness, of openness, a moment that will never return. Most people are becoming hungry for life at all levels. Most people are becoming hungry to be more real, to live life more fully in this great time of transformation, eager for more, eager to live in the heart, eager to live a life without pain, finally to live a life with no suffering - to live for the sake of life, to live for the sake of living and eager to come out of what's fake, eager to come out of pretending, eager to come out of that game of playing little, playing small.

People are waking up, people are creating. People are waking up to their growth. In this program they live growth in their heart, which they knew when they first took birth. In this heart, there's a great desire for harmony in the family, in the environment, for unity, for oneness. More and more people are getting ready to release their deepest, deepest emotional charges. More and more people are getting ready to heal their deepest, oldest wounds, to release their old patterns which keep coming in all their relationships, with brothers, sisters, parents, partners, colleagues at work, simply in these relationships that they care so much for, these intimate relationships. (Over)

Yes, you're waking up for a more intimate relationship with yourself, hence with others, meaning a life of achievement, a life with the feeling of accomplishment in life's purpose. You establish an intimate relationship where you're not afraid of you anymore, no more fear. You create; you co-create your life experience where life reveals itself to you as you allow the breath of life to breathe you, to exist in your heart instead of killing it, meaning you enhance your own growth in consciousness. As all these deep seated emotional charges are released, you're able to effect a massive change in the world.

This is the most fabulous, the greatest opportunity to be you as a new global civilization with a completely new awareness, new consciousness, where the human family lives in unity, with a new frame of reference, higher awareness and consciousness, wholeness, oneness, balance on earth, heaven on earth, global enlightenment. This is when each and everyone creates a new era where the sense of separation dissolves from the rest of life, thus long lasting, established joy and harmony.

I see the beauty that you are, of flowers blossoming, a profound inner stillness. The love is tangible, the clarity, the peacefulness, the balance, balance of life, centered, unity, wholeness, oneness. Yes, you may say Divine Compassion. I can say the inner Divine Intelligence at work. I'm here to help everyone to end his or her pain and suffering, to bring you and anyone, you and each and everyone into your own natural state called "enlightenment". So many when they're in this program live in this profound state in their everyday life.

What was once only for some in the past, chosen by the Master, is now available to all of you. This is Grace. Each can transform, so each can bring transformation. From a wounded heart, a heart full of pain and suffering, a confused being, to a real human being, your original state. This is a program of passion, a program from which you come out from being a dead human being to being a passionate human being, where you are being empowered by your own life, your own experience of life. When you come out of this program you feel fulfilled, inspired and ready to live your purpose. You move into action with commitment and power, you live life fully with passion in whatever you do.

Yes, I may create another program to deepen your own state of wholeness, a program where one realizes he or she can put an end to the illusion of personal pain and suffering, from which a natural state arises as a result of personal effort, commitment, engaging in spiritual effort as a practice. There's a shift of consciousness to an awakening state. A powerful program is coming, a "Profound Awakening" event. This is how I see you effect a massive change in the world.
