MR NARINDER NAYAR ADDRESSES UK INDIA INFRASTRUCTURE FORUM

Mr Narinder Nayar, Chairman of Bombay First, briefed UK Business on the future of infrastructure development in Mumbai. Established in 1995, Bombay First has an ambitious remit to plan for the future of India's megacity forty years hence.

Mr Nayar set out the opportunities in a wide number of sectors, and explored the Public Private Partnership model as the preferred model for delivery. Mr Nayar explained the complexity of the planning agenda in Mumbai, where seventeen agencies oversee the city and the importance of businesses engaging with the relevant policy makers at an early stage of their bid preparation.
