On 6th of December 2012
Be part of History!

On Dec 6th, 1938, William Cooper and Australian Aborigines League members walked from his Footscray home in 73 Southampton St to the German Consulate, to present a resolution condemning the treatment of Jews on Kristallnacht. It was not accepted.

- William Cooper’s grandson, Alf (Uncle Boydie) Turner, invites you to join him on the 74th anniversary in a re-enactment of the walk.
- Walkers will converge, from two different directions, at the new William Cooper Justice Centre.
