Football Indian Style: The Carlisle Story

Saturday, February 27, 2010

Time: 1:30 PM - 3:30 PM

5250 Aero Drive, Santa Rosa, CA 95403

By 1907, the Carlisle Indian School football team was the most dynamic team in college football, games between the boarding school and the nation's top collegiate teams usually ended in a victory for Carlisle. Coach Glenn Scobey "pop" Warner, Olympic Champion Jim Thorpe and other team champions invented modern football as we know it today. They pioneered the forward pass, the overhand spiral and other tactics that transformed the way in which the sport is played.

Come join us for an afternoon of exploring this little known era of sports history. Learn more about Jim Thorpe and the other Carlisle athletes, share in their triumphs and tragedies. Presenters will discuss the important contributions these legendary players made in changing both the game of football and federal Indian policy.
