CONNORS, Dela J. (Mallet)
Dela J. (Mallet) Connors, 96, of Framingham and Newton, Mass., died June 20, 2017. Born on Oct. 19, 1920, in Newton, Dela was the daughter of the late Cyprian and Jeanne Chatfield Mallet. Dela was predeceased by her husband of 57 years, John J. Connors. Dela attended Walpole High School and Boston University. She married John on Aug. 21, 1943, and moved to Framingham. Dela was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. A caring and loving mother, Dela brought up her daughter, Lisa, and her son, Michael. She then devoted many years to ensuring that her grandchildren were nurtured and supported. Dela was a deeply religious woman and a faithful member of the Immaculate Conception Church in Framingham. She enjoyed reading and writing, and was an avid gardener. Dela was the most devoted and loving grandmother to her grandchildren. Dela was the beloved wife of the late John J. Connors, and mother to Lisa G. (Connors) O'Keefe, of Wellesley, Mass., and Michael J. Connors, of Framingham, Mass. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Sara, Bridget, and Peter Conner, of Framingham, Mass., and Stephen Connors, of Waltham, Mass. Dela will be deeply missed by her family and friends. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated Monday, June 26, at 10 a.m. at Immaculate Conception Church, 66 Church St., Framingham. Internment will follow at St. James Cemetery, Washington St., Framingham. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Immaculate Conception Church, 66 Church St., Framingham, MA 01701, or your favorite charity.

GILLIS, Thomas A.
Thomas A. Gillis, 70, of Newton, a long-time resident of Newton and Wellesley, died on Friday, June 23, 2017, in his home. He was the beloved husband of the late Margaret M. (Maguire) Gillis, of Wellesley, and is survived by two children, Michael Bloomfield and Michael Bloomfield, Jr. of Newton. He was the loving father of Marcia Bloomfield DelGrosso and her husband, Joseph, of Wellesley. He was also the loving grandfather of Jack, of Waltham, and Anna, of Wellesley. He was the loving brother of Carlo Cataldo and wife, Ann, of Plainville; and the late Paul Cataldo, Anthony, Christie, James III, Philip, and Joseph D. Cataldo of Wellesley. He is survived by his 7 beloved grandchildren, Joseph, Marguerite, and their children, Roselle, Michael, Jonathan, and Parker; and Marguerite’s children, John, Mary, and Jack. Thomas was a beloved son of the late Michael and Anna Cataldo of Newton. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends. He was a graduate of Newton High School and received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Boston College. He was an active member of the Boston College Class of 1966, serving as a class officer and as a class representative to the Boston College Alumni Association. He was also a member of the Boston College Club of Wellesley. Thomas was a teacher at the Milton Academy for 20 years, retiring in 1996. He later taught at the Wellesley Country Day School and the Visible Learning Initiative. He enjoyed playing tennis and golf, and was an avid fan of Boston College sports. He was a member of the Wellesley Country Club and the Newton Country Club. Thomas was a dedicated Catholic and a member of St. Mary’s Church in Newton. He was a devoted father, husband, and grandfather. He was a kind and thoughtful gentleman who will be deeply missed by his family and friends. Thomas was predeceased by his wife, Margaret (Maguire) Gillis, of Wellesley, and his son, Michael, of Newton. He is survived by his children, Michael, of Newton, and Marcia, of Wellesley. He is also survived by his 7 grandchildren, Joseph, Marguerite, and their children, Roselle, Michael, Jonathan, and Parker; and Marguerite’s children, John, Mary, and Jack. Thomas is also survived by his brother, Carlo Cataldo, and his wife, Ann, of Plainville. Thomas will be greatly missed by his family and friends. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated Monday, June 26, at 10 a.m. at St. Mary’s Church, 801 Newtonville Ave., Newton, followed by interment at St. Joseph’s Cemetery, Waltham. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Boston College Office of Development, 272 N. Beacon St., Boston, MA 02215, or to the Wellesley Country Day School, 251 Moody St., Wellesley, MA 02481. Arrangements by the assuming charge of John J. D’Agostino & Sons, 68 Oak Hill Ave., Waltham, MA 02453.

BLOOMFIELD, Michael

BLOOMFIELD, Michael, 70, of Newton, a long-time resident of Newton and Wellesley, died on Friday, June 23, 2017, in his home. He was the beloved husband of the late Margaret M. (Maguire) Gillis, of Wellesley, and is survived by two children, Michael Bloomfield and Michael Bloomfield, Jr. of Newton. He was the loving father of Marcia Bloomfield DelGrosso and her husband, Joseph, of Wellesley. He was also the loving grandfather of Jack, of Waltham, and Anna, of Wellesley. He was the loving brother of Carlo Cataldo and wife, Ann, of Plainville; and the late Paul Cataldo, Anthony, Christie, James III, Philip, and Joseph D. Cataldo of Wellesley. He is survived by his 7 beloved grandchildren, Joseph, Marguerite, and their children, Roselle, Michael, Jonathan, and Parker; and Marguerite’s children, John, Mary, and Jack. Thomas was a beloved son of the late Michael and Anna Cataldo of Newton. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends. He was a graduate of Newton High School and received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Boston College. He was an active member of the Boston College Class of 1966, serving as a class officer and as a class representative to the Boston College Alumni Association. He was also a member of the Boston College Club of Wellesley. Thomas was a teacher at the Milton Academy for 20 years, retiring in 1996. He later taught at the Wellesley Country Day School and the Visible Learning Initiative. He enjoyed playing tennis and golf, and was an avid fan of Boston College sports. He was a member of the Wellesley Country Club and the Newton Country Club. Thomas was a dedicated Catholic and a member of St. Mary’s Church in Newton. He was a devoted father, husband, and grandfather. He was a kind and thoughtful gentleman who will be deeply missed by his family and friends. Thomas was predeceased by his wife, Margaret (Maguire) Gillis, of Wellesley, and his son, Michael, of Newton. He is survived by his children, Michael, of Newton, and Marcia, of Wellesley. He is also survived by his 7 grandchildren, Joseph, Marguerite, and their children, Roselle, Michael, Jonathan, and Parker; and Marguerite’s children, John, Mary, and Jack. Thomas is also survived by his brother, Carlo Cataldo, and his wife, Ann, of Plainville. Thomas will be greatly missed by his family and friends. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated Monday, June 26, at 10 a.m. at St. Mary’s Church, 801 Newtonville Ave., Newton, followed by interment at St. Joseph’s Cemetery, Waltham. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Boston College Office of Development, 272 N. Beacon St., Boston, MA 02215, or to the Wellesley Country Day School, 251 Moody St., Wellesley, MA 02481. Arrangements by the assuming charge of John J. D’Agostino & Sons, 68 Oak Hill Ave., Waltham, MA 02453.

BLOOMFIELD, Michael
Michael Bloomfield, 70, of Newton, a long-time resident of Newton and Wellesley, died on Friday, June 23, 2017, in his home. He was the beloved husband of the late Margaret M. (Maguire) Gillis, of Wellesley, and is survived by two children, Michael Bloomfield and Michael Bloomfield, Jr. of Newton. He was the loving father of Marcia Bloomfield DelGrosso and her husband, Joseph, of Wellesley. He was also the loving grandfather of Jack, of Waltham, and Anna, of Wellesley. He was the loving brother of Carlo Cataldo and wife, Ann, of Plainville; and the late Paul Cataldo, Anthony, Christie, James III, Philip, and Joseph D. Cataldo of Wellesley. He is survived by his 7 beloved grandchildren, Joseph, Marguerite, and their children, Roselle, Michael, Jonathan, and Parker; and Marguerite’s children, John, Mary, and Jack. Thomas was a beloved son of the late Michael and Anna Cataldo of Newton. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends. He was a graduate of Newton High School and received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Boston College. He was an active member of the Boston College Class of 1966, serving as a class officer and as a class representative to the Boston College Alumni Association. He was also a member of the Boston College Club of Wellesley. Thomas was a teacher at the Milton Academy for 20 years, retiring in 1996. He later taught at the Wellesley Country Day School and the Visible Learning Initiative. He enjoyed playing tennis and golf, and was an avid fan of Boston College sports. He was a member of the Wellesley Country Club and the Newton Country Club. Thomas was a dedicated Catholic and a member of St. Mary’s Church in Newton. He was a devoted father, husband, and grandfather. He was a kind and thoughtful gentleman who will be deeply missed by his family and friends. Thomas was predeceased by his wife, Margaret (Maguire) Gillis, of Wellesley, and his son, Michael, of Newton. He is survived by his children, Michael, of Newton, and Marcia, of Wellesley. He is also survived by his 7 grandchildren, Joseph, Marguerite, and their children, Roselle, Michael, Jonathan, and Parker; and Marguerite’s children, John, Mary, and Jack. Thomas is also survived by his brother, Carlo Cataldo, and his wife, Ann, of Plainville. Thomas will be greatly missed by his family and friends. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated Monday, June 26, at 10 a.m. at St. Mary’s Church, 801 Newtonville Ave., Newton, followed by interment at St. Joseph’s Cemetery, Waltham. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Boston College Office of Development, 272 N. Beacon St., Boston, MA 02215, or to the Wellesley Country Day School, 251 Moody St., Wellesley, MA 02481. Arrangements by the assuming charge of John J. D’Agostino & Sons, 68 Oak Hill Ave., Waltham, MA 02453.