Terms and Conditions WorldFuture 2016

By agreeing to these Terms and Conditions you understand that you are registering to attend a conference managed by the World Future Society (“WFS”) and all fees associated with your registration and to the conference are payable in full to WFS. You may register on behalf of others, however you are deemed to be liable for all associated fees for all the participants you register.

Ticket Cancellation
Tickets to the WorldFuture 2016 conference may be cancelled through June 15, 2016, by writing to conference@wfs.org with a request to cancel. A 25% administrative charge will apply to each Ticket purchased for any add-on events are non-refundable once purchased. These include, for example, Master Classes, off-site events or activities, meals, or any other activities arranged in connection with WorldFuture 2016 for which an additional charge applies.

Ticket Transfer
If you cannot attend the conference, but would like to transfer your entry to another person you are welcome to do so through July 8th, 2016. Please note that only the person named on the ticket will be granted access to the conference, so you will need to contact WFS at conference@wfs.org if you would like to transfer your ticket.

For administrative reasons, we cannot guarantee the ability to execute transfers after July 8th, 2016 (two weeks before the conference).

Recipients of transferred tickets will be bound by all terms and conditions.

Students
Student Rate ticket holders must be 24 years of age or younger and must present a valid student ID at the time of conference registration.

Documentation
WFS reserves the right to shoot video and audio and to take photographs of all events related to WorldFuture 2016. With your registration, you grant WFS the right to use this material for documentation and for future marketing purposes.
