Aftermath: Puerto Rico, Hurricane Maria and Cleveland Resettlement

Co-sponsored by the CWRU Latino Alumni Association

An event of Hispanic Heritage Month

- Date and Time: Thursday, October 4, 6-7:30 pm
- Location: Clapp Hall, Room 108, 2080 Adelbert Road

Join us for a discussion focusing on the economic and social issues that previously weakened the Puerto Rican infrastructure, the devastation of Hurricane Maria and its aftermath, and the efforts of local organizations to support new migrants in Cleveland. Judge Jazmin Torres-Lugo (a Puerto Rico native) will moderate.

Panelists:

- Dr. Luzma Cardona (Puerto Rico native, CWRU Clinical Assistant Professor of Medicine and neurologist at the Cleveland Clinic)
- Edwin Colon (MGT '18, GRS '18, Puerto Rico native, CWRU Institute of Transformative Molecular Medicine)
- Juan Molina Crespo (Executive Director, Hispanic Alliance, Inc.)
- Shaleika Vargas (CWR '10, Law '13, Vargas Law Co., Board Vice-President, Spanish American Committee)

The event is free and open to the community. Light refreshments will be served. RSVP to socialjustice@case.edu.
