Environmental and Social Justice Internship

Ohio Citizen Action is seeking activist minded individuals to join our campaign staff. As Ohio's largest environmental nonprofit, OCA has maintained a forty two year history of WINNING groundbreaking campaigns. Among other landmark victories, we passed the first Toxic Right-to-Know laws in the country, exposed major political corruption in Ohio, and pioneered a truly community-based structure of organizing. Now we need you to help tackle Ohio’s biggest problem; coal.

At OCA you will learn what it takes to be a community organizer. You will be joining a team of dedicated and like-minded individuals in the fight to protect our environment, public health and our communities at large. OCA provides the opportunity to make real environmental change stemming locally and reaching out globally.

OCA is at the forefront of efforts to protect our natural resources and public interest. As a member of our campaign team, you will have the opportunity to influence the ever expanding environmental movement in Ohio. We are leading the charge in moving Ohio towards a more renewable energy future. For too long fossil fuels have been poisoning our drinking water and compromising the air we breathe. Join the fight for a cleaner, sustainable future!

We are hiring and training community organizers to join our staff, both for part time and long term positions. There is ample room for advancement, and we work year round -- we don't disappear after elections or at campaign end.

Candidates should have strong verbal communication skills, be positive and energetic, and have an interest in environmental issues or non-profit work.

We offer extensive training.

Benefits:
- Fun and casual work atmosphere
- Course credits available
- Part time flexibility for students
- Leadership training provided
- Opportunities for travel throughout the U.S., including national and regional conferences
- Positive and rewarding work environment

Compensation:
$240-$400/wk (based on schedule) + wkly bonus
No degree required, open to freshman

Please call the office or email a copy of your resume to get more information about the position and to possibly set up an interview.
