Got a few hours a week? Flip a district!

Working on a U.S. Congressional campaign offers an exciting and immersive experience, especially in a swing district. Interns gain practical work experience by handling a variety of field, communications, and tech-related responsibilities. Ideal candidates should demonstrate enthusiasm, flexibility, and commitment to fighting for all Ohioans. To apply, send your resume to Tom Smith, Team Harbaugh's Operations Specialist, at tom@kenharbaughforcongress.com.

Meet Ken Harbaugh

Ken Harbaugh is a former Navy pilot, an Ohioan, and a lifelong champion for military veterans. A firm believer in service before self, Ken has flown recon missions off of North Korea and deployed with disaster relief teams in the U.S. and across the world. When his second daughter was born needing multiple surgeries, Ken took a tough job, often spending weeks away from his wife and kids, so that his family would have the health care they needed. Now, Ken is ready to stand up for working Ohioans.

Key Work Areas

- Data and digital strategy
- Field and voter operations
- Social media and communications
- Campaign logistics

What We’re Asking

- 5 to 10 hours a week in Spring 2018.
- Schedule flexible around midterms and finals.

Need Another Reason to Join?

- Hands-on experience on a U.S. Congressional race with national significance
- Personal letter of recommendation from Ken
- Priority consideration for Summer 2018 Campaign Fellowship program (full- or part-time)

Contact

Tom Smith, Operations Specialist
Email: tom@kenharbaughforcongress.com
Phone: (330)-826-1098