Join us for the International Education Programs Lunch and Learn information sessions in October. This will be an opportunity to hear from faculty and students about our 3-credit study abroad courses during Spring Break. Bring your lunch and get a sneak peek at these popular international opportunities!

October 23rd at 1:00pm in Mandel School Room 336 > Invisible Groups in a New Poland with Dr. Farkas and Dr. Romaniuk (1 PD hour)

October 30th at 1:00pm in the Mandel School Room 336 > 21st Century Ghana with Dr. Tucker (1 PD hour)

November 6th at 1:00pm in the Mandel School Room 336 > Mental Health and Social Justice in the Netherlands with Dr. Patrick Boyle and Sarah Parran.

For more than 12 years, the Mandel School has taken more than 1,000 participants to 20 countries across 4 continents. Over 1/3 of faculty-led, short-term programs at CWRU are offered by the Mandel School.

Our popular study abroad courses are open to all undergraduate and graduate students at Case Western Reserve University (any major) and provide the experience of a lifetime. The courses are led by passionate and experienced faculty who have been traveling to these countries for nearly a decade. One-third of all CWRU short-term study abroad programs are offered by the Mandel School — reflecting our commitment to and enthusiasm for international study. Course program fee and travel costs may be covered by financial aid.
