The Sigma Iota Rho (SIR) Journal of International Relations is looking for submissions from undergraduate students for its annual issue.

Rules for Submissions:
- Authors must be current students
- Articles must be original and previously unpublished
- Relevant articles include research and findings in topics such as economics, political science, history, and area studies
- Papers must be between 2,000 and 6,000 words in length
- Citations must be completed according to the Chicago Manual of Style, 15th edition
- Submissions with charts, graphs, or other pertinent illustrations are acceptable

Format of Submissions:
- Articles must be in Microsoft Word (.docx format) with 1-inch margins, double-spaced, and 12-point Times New Roman font.
- A front cover paper must list: name, email, telephone number, university, and the title of the article
- Submissions must include a title, a 200-word abstract, and a brief biography of the author

The Journal has a circulation of 3,000 copies, which are distributed to over 185 undergraduate international relations and APSIA graduate international relations schools. Each edition includes a featured article by a leading voice in international relations—previous headliners have included Vice President Joe Biden, President George W. Bush, Sec. Madeline Albright and Sec. Henry Kissinger.

Deadline for Submissions:
Thursday, January 31, 2019
