“European Policies toward Immigration”

Open Lecture on Thursday, November 8th at Mandel Center

Dr. Marcin Gońda will give a lecture titled “European policies toward immigration at the time of refugee crisis” on Thursday, Nov. 8, from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m. in room 115 of the Mandel Center for Community Studies, 11402 Bellflower Road, Cleveland, Ohio.

The guest speaker is an assistant professor at the Institute of Sociology, University of Lodz in Poland, and also cooperates with the Centre for Migration Research, University of Warsaw. In 2016, he defended his Ph.D. thesis on educational migration of people of Polish descent from the post-Soviet successor states. His research interests cover return migration and diaspora policies, educational migration, migration in the Central and Eastern Europe and the post-Soviet area, transformation of migration policies of European Union member states and implementation of qualitative research methods (including a biographical approach) in migration studies.

Gońda is conducting research on Polish diaspora (Polonia) in Cleveland and is a Kościuszko Foundation Fellow in cooperation with the department of Sociology, Case Western Reserve University. This lecture is sponsored in part by the Ohio Chapter of The Kościuszko Foundation.

For more information, please contact Dr. Kathleen Farkas (kathleen.farkas@case.edu) 216.368.2276