Reflections of a Resolute Radical: A Community Conversation and Book Signing with Don Freeman

Wednesday, November 28, 2018 | 6:30-8:30 pm
CWRU Linsalata Alumni Center, 11310 Juniper Road

Join us as activist, author, editor and scholar Don Freeman (CWR '61) reads from and discusses his autobiography, Reflections of a Resolute Radical. A lifelong Cleveland resident and graduate of Glenville High School and Case Western Reserve University, Don will share thoughts about the civil rights movement, the rise of radicalism, and the community's responses to both.

Free and Open to the Community | Doors open at 6 pm.
Light refreshments will be served.
RSVP to socialjustice@case.edu or 216.368.7568.