IRTF Fair Trade Outreach & Sales Tables:
-support the growth of fair trade cooperatives as an alternative economic model
-promote community-to-cooperative relationships between NE Ohio and Latin America
-educate NE Ohioans on policy questions that impact local economies in Ohio, Central America, Mexico and Colombia

About these events:

Gilmour Academy Fair Trade Fair
Friday, Apr 26, 8am – 3:30pm
www.gilmour.org

We have been invited by Gilmour faculty to speak with classes about Fair Trade and human rights, and to showcase and sell some of our Latin American products and crafts this Friday. One of our IRTF staff members will be staffing our sales table, but is seeking volunteer assistance, as this sale will run the entirety of the school day. Please see the schedule of shifts for April 26 below.

Saint Joseph Parish Fair Trade Sale
Saturday, Apr 27, 4pm – 6pm
Sunday, Apr 28, 8:30am – 2pm

The Social Justice Group at Saint Joseph Parish and School in Avon Lake is hosting a Fair Trade Sale in St. Joseph Hall this weekend, where folks will be able to shop for gifts in between services. There are a number of conferences and Fair Trade sales that IRTF staff will need to cover this weekend, so we are asking for volunteers to help make this sale happen. Please see the schedule of shifts for April 27-28 below.

If you can volunteer for a 2-hour shift, please respond to this email, or send a message to volunteer@irtfcleveland.org.

Thanks in advance!

IRTF envisions a world where people work for themselves and do not have to be dependent on the dominant economic model that perpetuates inequality and exploitation of people and the environment. IRTF promotes economic models where self-determination, gender equality, transparency, and democratic organization are the norm.
