Sister Cities International, in conjunction with The City Club of Washington, invites you to an

Ambassador Luncheon Series

with His Excellency, Selwin Hart, Ambassador of Barbados to the United States

Selwin Hart currently serves as Ambassador of Barbados to the United States after his appointment by the Government of Barbados in 2016. He has also served as the Director of the United Nations Secretary General’s Climate Change Support Team (CCST), as well as the Chief Climate Change Negotiator for Barbados and lead negotiator on finance for the Alliance of Small Island Developing States (AOSIS), a coalition of 43 Islands and low-lying coastal states. He holds a Bachelor of Sciences Degree in Economics and Accounting from the University of the West Indies, Cave Hill, Barbados and a Master of Arts Degree in International Political Economy from Fordham University in New York. He was also the recipient of an Organization of American States (OAS) fellowship to Georgetown University in Washington D.C. where he completed a post-graduate certificate in Trade Planning and Strategic Management in 1995.

Wednesday, February 28, 2018

12:00 - 1:30p.m.

Complimentary to members, $20 for guests

The City Club of Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln Ballrooms

555 15th Street NW, concourse level

Washington, DC 20004

Please RSVP with member relations director Annalise Parks at:

annalise.parks@clubcorp.com