Pamela Brailsford is Senior Director of Supplier Diversity & Sustainability for Cintas Corporation in Mason, OH. She began her career as a Management Trainee at Burke Marketing Research. She continued working in the marketing research field for over 20 years progressing to the director level with responsibilities for vendor selection, management, training and data collection in the US and Latin America.

In addition, she was the president and owner of Jade-Alexander Consulting Group, a consulting company for 11 years providing services in data collection, data processing and mystery shopping.

In 2007 Pamela took on her current role and is responsible for developing and executing strategies for Cintas’ supplier diversity and environmental sustainability processes corporate wide.

Pamela is a relationship builder, visionary and change agent. As a founding member of the Greater Cincinnati Green Business Council and active supplier diversity professional, Pamela forms relationships and builds many positive bonds to further develop and share her knowledge of supplier diversity, sustainability and general career advice with young professionals.

A native of Lima, OH, Brailsford earned a bachelor’s degree in marketing and management from the University of Cincinnati. Pamela was elected to the board of the Ohio Minority Supplier Development Council (OMSDC) in 2009 and serves on the board of trustees for the Boys & Girls Club of Greater Cincinnati and Green Umbrella. She is a graduate of the Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber, Leadership Cincinnati Program and a 2012 YWCA of Greater Cincinnati Career Woman of Achievement.

Pamela is married to John Brailsford and is the proud parent of Lauren Coleman.
