Events for Graduate Students
Spring Quarter 2018

Tuesday
April 10, 2018
12:00-1:00 p.m.

Book Talk by Dr. Aurora Chang

Friday
April 13, 2018
5:00-6:30 p.m.

Spring Community Picnic
Come and join our comunidad for a fun-filled event with delicious food. All are welcome!

Wednesday
April 18, 2018
7:00-8:30 p.m.

Latinidad Unfiltered: Latinx Representation, Misrepresentation, and Politics
Join us for an important roundtable discussion about Latinx representation, politics, and the media. Featuring speakers Christy Haubegger (SLS ’92); Ana Navarro; and Amanda Renteria, (Stanford ’97). Introduced by Juany Torres, (Stanford, ’13).

Thursday
April 24, 2018
5:00-6:30 p.m.

Latino-Phobia? Perspectives on Anti-Latinx Discrimination in American Life
Come and hear this timely scholarly discussion on how bias against the Latinx community is expressed in contemporary political discourse.

Friday
May 11, 2018
5:00-8:00 p.m.

Galarza Lecture & Chicanx-Latinx Community Awards Banquet
Join us for this year’s Ernesto Galarza Lecture, given this year by Jerry Porras. Following the lecture, we will present awards to the members of our undergraduate and graduate communities. Dinner will be served.

Monday
May 14, 2018
12:00-1:00 p.m.

Graduate Scholars-in-Residence Research Presentation
Join us as we hear about the research of four of the six doctoral students working in residence at El Centro this year. Lunch will be served.

Friday
May 25, 2018
5:00-6:30 p.m.

Graduate Student Happy Hour, Palo Alto
Come and take a well-deserved break from your seminars, labs, and writing and join us in Palo Alto. Location TBD.

Wednesday
May 16, 2018
5:30-7:00 p.m.

Talk by Marvel Comics “America” Creator, Gabby Rivera
Come and meet Gabby Rivera, the creator of the first Latina, queer superhero for Marvel comics, “America,” as she discusses her work and her life. Dinner will be served.

Thursday
May 31, 2018
6:00–8:00 p.m.

Film Screening and Discussion: “As I Walk Through the Valley”
Join us as we hear from Ronnie Garza and Charlie Vega, the directors of the new documentary, “As I Walk Through the Valley: A History of Underground Music in the South Texas Borderlands,” as they screen and discuss the film. Dinner will be served.