Part-Time Web Development Position Available

TevahMedia a Growing Web Design and Digital Marketing Agency is seeking a Talented, intelligent and hungry Junior Full Stack web developer. The ideal candidate is eager for more web dev projects and wants to work with an entrepreneurial team.

Our office is located in the Tech Incubator of Queens College which makes this a great opportunity for QC computer science students however other applications will be accepted.

Establish and maintain Databases

Develop Virtual Private Server for multiple websites

Assist in front and back end web development

Manage Security, maintenance and all other server aspects.

Proficient in Wordpress

Languages:
HTML CSS Javascript
Javascript frameworks and php
mysql or other database languages

Individuals must have their own laptops.

Please email Resume to Noah@tevahmedia.com