Academic Pediatric Association, Region IX and X Annual Conference, Monterey, CA

On the weekend of January 27-28, 2018 at the Stanford Pediatric Residents and Fellows presented at the Academic Pediatric Association, Region IX and X Annual Conference in Monterey CA.

Chisom Agbim: Improving inpatient asthma management across the Stanford Children’s Hospital Network

Jayme Congdon: Preventing unplanned pregnancy: parent and provider perspectives of maternal family planning during WCC

Jennifer DeCoste-Lopez: Standing together for kids: tools for building a coalition of pediatrician advocates

Jennifer DeCoste-Lopez: When patients ask me to pray I don't know what to do

Kim Hoang: Understanding perspectives of parents and pediatricians on goals of hospitalization and shared decision making

Kim Hoang: Code Bias: A novel tool to debrief about cultural biases at work

Thuy Nguyen: Recognizing a cycle of dependence that impedes residents’ ability to learn neurology

Jill Krissberg: Qualitative exam of ethnic identity among Pacific Islander summer camp youth participants

Talia Lester: Mentorship needs of 4th year students applying for residency

Brittany Boswell: Bridging the Gap: Needs assessment of patient and pediatric resident perspectives on family needs and resources

Rishi Mediratta: Newborn mortality score: predicting neonatal mortality at the Univ of Gondar Hospital, Ethiopia
Carmin Powell: Learning to LEAD (Leadership Education in Advancing Diversity): Empowering trainees through building leadership and scholarship capacity in diversity and inclusion

Kerrilynn Rice: Empowering providers to improve care of families with Limited English Proficiency