Workshop on
Global Citizenship Education
Making the SDG Target 4.7 Happen Globally

July 19th, 2016
8:30 – 9:45 AM
Venue: Bahá’í International Community
866 United Nations Plaza, Suite 120

This workshop aims to assess the state of engagement on the implementation of the UN SDG Target 4.7 as an integral part of SDG 4 as well as the Incheon Declaration “Education 2030: Towards inclusive and equitable quality education and lifelong learning for all” outcome document of the World Education Forum (WEF) in May 2015. Invited speakers are expected to comment on the potential of SDG Target 4.7 to support the achievement of all other goals and targets and to discuss opportunities to strengthen global initiatives on Target 4.7

Speakers:
• Daniel Perell, Representative, Bahá’í International Community
• Rilli Lappalainen, Kehys/The Bridge 47 Network
• Ambassador Hahn Choonghee, Deputy Permanent Representative of the Republic of Korea to the United Nations
• Angel Cheng, Steering Committee of the Coalition for Global Citizenship 2030
• Annika Lindblom, Secretary General of the Finnish Sustainable Development Committee
