Postdoctoral Association at UCLA
2019 Postdoc Mentoring Award

Nomination Form

Please submit this Form and a nomination letter, in a single PDF by email, to the Mentorship Award Committee Chair: Johnny Saldate (jsaldate@ucla.edu) no later than December 9, 2019. Questions relating to nominations can be sent to the same address.

Nominee (faculty) name:
Nominee department:
Nominee email address:
Nominee phone number:
Nominee title (e.g. associate professor):
Number of postdoctoral researchers currently supervised:
Number of graduate students currently supervised:
Year started faculty position at UCLA:

Nominator (postdoc) name:
Nominator department:
Nominator email address:
Nominator phone number:
Year/month started postdoc at UCLA:
Do you hold a current postdoctoral scholar appointment at UCLA? (Yes or No)

Along with this form, please submit a nomination letter describing why your nominee exemplifies the criteria of the 2019 UCLA PDA Mentoring Award (600-word limit), as well as a photo of your mentor nominee. You may choose to consider addressing the following points:

- A summary of your nominee's mentoring efforts, including, for example, the length of time that they have served as a mentor; the number of postdocs that they have mentored; and examples of the success that these postdocs have had under the mentor's guidance.
- A description of the philosophy, activities, characteristics, or traits of your nominee that make this person a truly outstanding mentor. Be sure to provide specific examples.
- How your nominee provides "hands-on" professional development experiences for postdocs, such as writing papers or reviews and applying for grants/fellowships.
- How your nominee provides postdocs with guidance on networking and planning for their future careers.
- How your nominee maintains accessibility with postdocs by consistently providing open lines of communication and helping them to become competent in communication.
- How your nominee promotes equity and inclusion within the postdoc community at UCLA.
- How you have benefitted from your nominee's mentoring (if applicable).