Join us for an interactive symposium:

Emerging Developments in the Management of Metachromatic Leukodystrophy

Wednesday, February 12, 2020 | 6:15–7:15 AM

Breakfast will be served

Hyatt Regency Orlando | Windermere Y

This interactive session will feature expert discussion and audience response to the following topics relevant to the management of patients with metachromatic leukodystrophy (MLD):

- Refining our understanding of the MLD disease continuum
- Evolution in management strategies
- Diagnostic challenges and importance of early identification

PANELISTS

Paul J Orchard, MD
Professor, Division of Pediatric Blood and Marrow Transplantation
Medical Director, Inherited Metabolic and Storage Disease Bone Marrow Transplantation Program
University of Minnesota, USA

Francesca Fumagalli, MD, PhD
Neurologist, San Raffaele Telethon Institute for Gene Therapy (SR-Tiget)
Pediatric Immuno-hematology Unit
Department of Neurology
San Raffaele Scientific Institute, Milan, Italy

Giancarlo la Marca, PharmSc
Associate Professor of Clinical Chemistry
Department of Experimental and Clinical Biomedical Sciences
University of Florence
Head, Newborn Screening
Clinical Chemistry and Pharmacology Laboratory
Meyer Children’s Hospital, Florence, Italy