AHA Centre’s Disaster Monitoring & Response System (DMRS) is on “Warning” alert for potential Mount Agung eruption from 25 November 2017.

Indonesian authorities maintains Alert Level IV (out of 4 levels, the highest) for Mount Agung from 27 November 2017, 06.00 (UTC +8).

Volcano Observatory Notice for Aviation (VONA) for Mt. Agung is still at Red Level. Ngurah Rai International Airport (DPS) & Lombok Praya International Airport (LOP) are closed, subject to revision on 27 November 2017 evening, 18.00 hours (UTC +7).

Indonesian authorities maintains 7.5 km exclusion zone, with 22 villages classified as most at risk areas. Number of registered evacuees is at around 40,000 people (BNPB Press Con, 27 Nov.)