Family Storytelling Opportunity

Thursday, July 25 • 9:00 AM–6:00 PM

As our beloved storytellers age, now is the time to capture camp experiences and important family stories. On Thursday, July 25, a select group of pilgrims will have the exclusive opportunity to work with Emmy-winning filmmakers David Ono & Jeff MacIntyre to interview their loved ones on video.

Space is extremely limited, so contact Julie Abo at juliea@heartmountain.org or 402-617-6483 ASAP.

Pre-Pilgrimage Activities

Thursday, July 25 • various times

Arriving early? Take part in one of this year’s pre-Pilgrimage workshops:

- Densho’s Family History Keepers Workshop, with Densho Archivist Caitlin Oiye Coon
- Reflective Writing Workshop, with Tani Ikeda of Japanese American Women Speak
- Cartooning Workshop, with legendary Nisei animator Willie Ito

If you are interested in learning more about these workshops, please contact Dakota Russell at dakota@heartmountain.org or 307-754-8000 ext. 103.

Friday Opening Ceremony

Friday, July 26 • 9:00 AM–12:00 PM

During the Opening Ceremony, there will be a screening of the new film from Dianne Fukami and Debra Nakatomi, “Friday, July 26”. Emmy-winning filmmakers David Ono & Jeff MacIntyre will share tips and tricks to capturing your family’s story on video or audio. Not a tech expert? No problem! This workshop is suitable for all skill levels. The only requirement is a desire to preserve your family’s meaningful story for future generations. Last year, this session was standing room only, so come early for the digital storytelling fun!

Friday Educational Sessions

Friday, July 26 • 2:00–3:10 PM & 3:20–4:30 PM

- Resisters & Their Legacy
  Takashi Hoshizaki, Frank Abe, & Art Hansen
  Documentarian Frank Abe, resister Takashi Hoshizaki, and historian Arthur A. Hansen will discuss the draft resistance movement at Heart Mountain and the living legacy of the largest organized resistance to the mass wartime incarceration of Japanese Americans in World War II.

- Authors on Incarceration
  Andrea Warren, Duncan Williams, Brad Pearson, & Shirley Higuchi
  A conversation with authors Andrea Warren, Duncan Rykken Williams, Bradford Pearson, and Shirley Ann Higuchi about their research and insights into different and often overlooked aspects of the incarceration story.

Film Screening

Friday, July 26 • 6:00–9:00 PM

“Return to Foretop’s Father” • Preston Randolph
This documentary film follows Apsaalooke (Crow) Elder, Grant Bulltail, on his quest to reclaim a powerful energy that was lost to the Crow Tribe early in their nation’s history. Through storytelling, educational seminars, and an annual pipe ceremony that takes place on Heart Mountain, Grant is working to inform the public that there is a change we can all make to reverse the negative effects of climate change and technological dissonance in society. Following the film, there will be a Q&A with director Preston Randolph.

Film Screening: Music at Heart Mountain

Friday, July 26 • 8:00–9:00 PM

Erin Aoyama, explores the story of music at Heart Mountain, from traditional folk songs to swinging jazz bands.

Multigenerational Discussions

Saturday, July 27 • 9:30–10:45 AM, 10:45 AM–Noon, 2:00–3:15 PM

Sayonara Banquet

Saturday, July 27 • 6:30–8:00 PM

This final evening meal is an opportunity to socialize, catch up with old friends, and synthesize everything you’ve experienced throughout the Pilgrimage. The rest of the weekend will be filled with multiple options for programming, leaving Saturday night for socializing! This is an optional add-on which you can include on the registration worksheet.

Sayonara Banquet

Saturday, July 27 • 6:30–8:00 PM

This final evening meal is an opportunity to socialize, catch up with old friends, and synthesize everything you’ve experienced throughout the Pilgrimage. The rest of the weekend will be filled with multiple options for programming, leaving Saturday night for socializing! This is an optional add-on which you can include on the registration worksheet.

Keynote Speaker

Saturday, July 27 • 12:00 PM

Judge Lance Ito
During lunch at the Interpretive Center, this year’s keynote speaker, the Honorable Judge Lance Ito, will reflect on the Heart Mountain legacy of his parents, James and Toshi Ito.

Archives/Collections Donations

All the objects you see throughout this brochure are original Heart Mountain artifacts, contained in the HMWF Collections. If you are considering bringing artifacts, documents or photographs from camp to the Pilgrimage for donation, please contact the Registrar beforehand.

Research Appointments

If you are interested in researching in the HMWF Collections, please contact the Registrar by May 31, 2019 to make an appointment. Due to time constraints and an increase in research requests interest during the week of the Pilgrimage, the HMWF Collections will not be able to accommodate unexpected researchers.

Contact

Danielle McAdams, Registrar, archives@heartmountain.org or 307-754-8000 ext. 103