Program Guide
Clinical Trial MythBusters
Actionable Advice and Resources for Knocking Down Obstacles to Trial Participation

Clinical Trial Education Related Resources

Clinicaltrials.gov - a database of privately and publicly funded clinical studies conducted around the world
Sparkcures.com - a resource for myeloma patients to find, understand and connect with eligible clinical trials
Healthtree.org - helps patients navigate treatment options and clinical trials available that patients can discuss with your doctor
Themmr.org - an organization helping to accelerate the development of new and better myeloma treatments
Myeloma.org - a resource for education, support, research, regional meetings
CISCRP.org – center for information and study on research participation
Reinaweiner.com – Free E-Book: “The ABC’s of Trusting Yourself – How to Become An Empowered Patient”

Financial Assistance Resources

Provides patients immediate financial assistance for incidental expenses related to active cancer treatments.

CancerCare: https://www.cancercare.org/financial_assistance
Offers limited assistance for cancer-related costs including professional oncology social workers

CancerCare Co-Payment Assistance Foundation: 1-866-552-6729
http://www.cancercarecopay.org
Addresses needs of individuals who cannot afford their insurance co-payments to cover the cost of medications for treating cancer

The PAN Foundation believes that high deductibles and co-pays should not prevent people with life-threatening, chronic and rare diseases from getting the medications and treatment they need.

Patient Advocate Foundation: https://www.patientadvocate.org/
PAF provides direct case management services and financial assistance to patients and caregivers

Cancer Financial Assistance Coalition: http://www.cancerfac.org/
A list of member organizations that provide financial and other assistance

If you have been diagnosed with a disability that makes you unable to work, you may qualify for financial assistance through the Social Security Administration (SSA)