DACA Deadline Call to Action: With the September 5th announcement by the Trump Administration that DACA will be phased out, the call to action is clear. We must act in defense of those whose renewal falls before March 5, 2018, as well as for those whose permits expire after the deadline, by passing a permanent legislative solution in Congress.

New DACA Applicants
- Are no longer eligible to apply for DACA

DACA Renewal Expires AFTER March 5, 2018
- You are not eligible to apply for renewal
- Your social security number will still be yours - work permits will be valid through expiration date
- Seek legal consultation for a screening of further options for status

DACA Renewal Expires ON or BEFORE March 5, 2018
- You have until OCTOBER 5, 2017 to submit renewal application WITH $495 fee.
- Watch for upcoming clinics and offerings of legal support
- If you need assistance covering the $495 fee, watch for scholarship/grant opportunities

154,000
The estimated number of DACAmented individuals who will need to submit their renewal application before October 5th, with the $495 fee.

5,133
The number of renewal applications that will need to be completed and submitted each day before the October 5th deadline.

214
The number of renewal applications that will need to be completed and submitted each hour, if legal representatives work 24/7.
