Figuring Out Friendships
A Mother-Daughter Workshop for Girls in the 5th and 6th Grades

WHY ATTEND?
• To help build positive alliances between mothers and daughters
• Teaches about relational aggression
• Offers skills to help young adolescents cope with challenges they may encounter.

The goal of the workshop is to open conversations between mothers and daughters while maintaining her child’s growing need for independence.

WORKSHOP DETAILS:
The New Center
1100 N. Main Street #100, Ann Arbor
Saturday, November 12, 2016
9 a.m.-1 p.m.
Lunch is included
Workshop will be presented by Gabrielle Gruber, LMSW
Dr. Emily Abbenante-Honold

PURCHASE YOUR TICKETS AT http://tinyurl.com/SMSGNov2016