Jeff Edwards

SCOTOMAS REVEALED: UNCOVERING YOUTH DEPRESSION BLIND SPOTS

Jeff Edwards is the Board Chair of The American Foundation for Suicide Prevention - Metro Detroit / Ann Arbor Chapter and has presented to schools across Michigan about causes and interventions regarding teen suicide. His son, Chase, committed suicide at the age of 12. In fact, part of the Michigan Revised School Code, (PA 380.1171) is now known as "Chase Edwards law."

Join us on November 24, 2014, 6 – 7 p.m.

We would like to invite parents and educators to attend the presentation. Students in grades 7 – 12 are also welcome. There is no fee to attend the event.

Please call for more information

Presenting an alternate perspective and reference set, Jeff Edwards (Board Chair from the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention) offers relevant insight and beneficial perspective in our quest to dispel the myths, as well as diffusing the stigmas associated with mental illness, youth depression and suicide.