AGENDA

7:30am – 8:00am
Registration - Light breakfast & coffee.

8:00am – 8:10am
Welcome Note

8:10am – 8:30am
Understanding Modern Slavery compliance, your legal requirements. K&L Gates, Michael Hain, Partner

8:30am – 8:50am
The role of APSCA: Independent compliance audits through consistent, professional and credible practices. Rona Starr, President & CEO of The Association of Professional Social Compliance Auditors (APSCA)

8:50am – 9:10am
Action Case Study: Accor Hotels.
Darren Pike, Senior Category Manager

9:10am – 9:30am
Action Case Study: Woolworth's Laura McManus, Responsible Sourcing Manager.

9:30am – 9:50am
Action Case Study: Anti-Slavery Task-force, Catholic Archdiocese. Alison Rahill, Executive Officer

9:50am – 10:10am
Practical & achievable steps toward action. Intertek Business Assurance, Benjamin Rieck, General Manager Australasia.

10:10am – 10:30am
Q&A panel discussion

10:30am – 11:00am
Tea & Coffee + Networking

Guest Speakers Include:

Michael Hain - Partner, K&L Gates
Michael is a lead in K&L Gates Global Ethical Supply Chain & Modern Slavery Group.
Focused on client and global legal responses to modern slavery, an experienced Partner with a demonstrated history of over 25 years in value-adding and delivering solutions for clients.

Rona Starr - President & CEO, APSCA
Rona Starr joined APSCA in August 2016. She oversees the organization’s development and the advancement of APSCA’s mission to enhance the professionalism and credibility of the individuals and organizations performing independent social compliance audits.

Darren Pike - Senior Category Manager, Accor Hotels
Darren is responsible for the management of Accor Hotels Corporate Social Responsibility program across Australia and New Zealand. Accor Hotels is a leader in positive and sustainable hospitality in Australia, awarded the prestigious Banksia Award in recognition of commendable work the group is doing to manage impacts.

Laura McManus - Responsible Sourcing Manager, Woolworths Group
Laura oversees the implementation of Woolworths Group’s Responsible Sourcing Program. Laura was co-author of the Tackling Modern Slavery in Supply Chains Guide, a publication by the Walk Free Foundation.

Alison Rahill - Executive Officer, Anti-Slavery Taskforce, Catholic Archdiocese of Sydney
Alisons work is to bring to fruition the Archdiocese’s vision for Catholic entities to collaborate on a program to eradicate modern slavery and forced labour from the operations and supply chains across finance, universities, health and aged care and schools.