

Current vacancies in LSE Halls

What to do to be considered for one of these spaces

If you would like to be considered for one of the room types listed below and are a recent new applicant or if you are on the waiting list for accommodation for the 2016/17 academic year, please log back in to your Hallpad account and edit your preferences. Your first preference should match the room type you would like to be considered for.

Please note, if you already hold a space in an LSE hall or a partner residence (urbanest halls, Lilian Knowles or intercollegiate halls), you will not be considered for these vacancies. It is not permitted to hold a contract for more than one room in a hall of residence concurrently.
