Ongoing and planned AI-related research at the Faculty of Social Science, Umeå University

Time 10 September 2019, 13.15 - circa 16.15
Place Professorn, plan 8, Förvaltningshuset

13.15 Welcome!
Greg Neely, Pro Dean of the Faculty of Social Sciences.

13.20 A social science perspective on AI
Simon Lindgren, DIGSUM, Department of Sociology

13.35 Linking, decoupling and delegating: artificial intelligence governance in organizations
Jonny Holmström, SCDI, Department of Informatics

13.50 Automation, structural change and labour mobility
Rikard Eriksson, Department of Geography/CERUM

14.05 Curiosity in humans and machines
Linus Holm, Department of Psychology

14.20 Legality and democratic deliberation in black box policing
Markus Naarttijärvi, Department of Law

14.35 A.I.D.A. the digital receptionist - A pedagogic perspective on implementing an artificial intelligent assistant solution for dental healthcare
Eva Mårell-Olsson, Applied Educational Science

14.50 The internet of things and AI
Tomas Blomquist, USBE, Business administration

15.05 Beyond the algorithm: The digital transformation of society: ethics, methods and responsible co-creation of AI
Karin Danielsson, Department of Informatics

15.20 Algorithms we live by: Using case studies to understand artificial intelligence
Markus Hälgren, USBE, Business administration

15.35 Coffee, questions, and open discussion

16.15 End