

HEJS 2203  The Holocaust in Print, Theater, and Film  Tu 3:00-6:00
Representations of the Holocaust, including first-hand accounts and documentaries; artistic choices in genre, structure, imagery, point of view; and the limits of representation. CA1 and CA4-INT.
Cross-listed with HRTS, DRAM, ENGL, and CLCS. (Grae Sibelman)

HEJS 3201  Selected Books of the Hebrew Bible  TuTh 12:30-1:45
Focuses on a biblical book (or books) and emphasizes its literary structure and content, using modern approaches as well as midrashic and medieval exegesis. CA1. Cross-listed with CLCS.
(Professor Susan Einbinder)

HEJS 3241  Jewish Magic: From Late Antiquity through the Early Modern Period  TuTh 9:30-10:45
Jewish magical beliefs and practices from the rabbinic period through the early modern period. Texts include spells, kabbalistic lore, magical books, incantations, legends, prayers, medical texts, and exempla.
(Professor Susan Einbinder)

HEJS 3298  Ethiopian Jews in Ethiopia and Israel  MWF 1:25-2:15
Focuses on the modern history of Ethiopian Jews in Ethiopia and Israel and explores the ways in which social boundaries are constructed. Cross-listed with AFRA, SOCI, CLCS. (Adane Zawdu)

For those interested in Hellenistic Judaism:

CAMS 3298  Alexander the Great in Fact and Fiction  M 4:00-6:45
Examines Alexander the Great and the Hellenistic World. Cross-listed with CLCS. (Professor Sara Johnson)

Hebrew Language Courses
1150 Elementary Biblical Hebrew II
1152 Elementary Modern Hebrew II
1154 Intermediate Hebrew II
3252 Advanced Hebrew

Course details at judaicstudies.uconn.edu