Hebrew and Judaic Studies
Department of Literatures, Cultures, and Languages

Spring 2019

Fulfill
Content Areas

This Semester Honors Only - Meets CA1 and CA4

HEJS 1103  Literature and Civilization of the Jewish People  M  3:35-6:05
Honors. Survey of the Jews from biblical times to the present. CA1 and CA4 (Professor Stuart S. Miller). Returning in Fall 2019 when it will be open to all undergraduates with its new title: “Who Are the Jews? Jewish Identity Through the Ages.”

Meets CA1

HEJS 3201  Selected Books of the Hebrew Bible: Priests of God, Prophets of Destruction  MWF 12:20-1:10
Focuses on the biblical books of Jeremiah and Ezekiel and emphasizes their literary structure and content, using modern approaches as well as midrashic and medieval exegesis. CA1. (Professor John Thames)

Variable Topics

HEJS 3298.001  Ethiopian Jews in Ethiopia and Israel  TuTh 12:30-1:45
Focuses on the modern history of Ethiopian Jews in Ethiopia and Israel and explores the ways in which social boundaries are constructed. Cross-listed with AFRA, SOCI, CLCS. (Adane Zawdu)

Graduate

HEJS 5397  Seminar in Twentieth-Century Literature: Contemporary German Jewish Literature and Human Rights M 3-5:45
Cross-listed with GERM and CLCS. (Professor Sebastian Wogenstein)

Hebrew

1150 Elementary Biblical Hebrew II  MWF 2:30-3:20 and W 1:25-2:15
1152 Elementary Modern Hebrew II  TuTh 9:30-10:45 and W 10:10-11:00
1154 Intermediate Hebrew II  TuTh 12:30-1:45 and W 12:20-1:10
3252 Advanced Hebrew  TuTh 2:00-3:15
3295 Advanced Biblical Hebrew (1 credit)  M 1:25-2:15

www.judaicstudies.uconn.edu