What is EEE?
Equipment which depends upon electric currents or electromagnetic fields in order to work properly. This means that the equipment needs electric currents or electromagnetic fields to fulfill its basic function (i.e. when the electric current is off, the equipment cannot fulfill its basic function).

Which products will be coming into scope and how should they be declared?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Category</th>
<th>Product</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1 – Large Household Appliances | Gas boilers
Air conditioning
Air filtering / extracting
Furniture (unless for medical purposes, declared in category 8) |
| 2 – Small Household Appliances | Plugs
Sockets
Switches, dimmers
Taps with safety features or sensors |
| 3 – IT and Telecoms Equipment | Smart mirror – integral display and wifi / Bluetooth functionality |
| 5 – Lighting Equipment | Household luminaires:
- Wall lights
- Desk lamps
- Floor lamps
- Fairy lights
- Garden lights
- Ceiling roses with flex and bulb holder
Mirror with integral light fittings |
| 7 – Toys, Leisure and Sports Equipment | Clothing with fundamental electrical feature |
| 9 – Monitoring and Control Instruments | Energy management systems
Fuse boxes
Circuit breakers
Junction boxes |