The Gender Policy Working Group presents:

SIPA’S SECOND ANNUAL GENDER FILM FESTIVAL

Monday, Nov 9, 8:10 pm

(SEX) APPEAL

Set in Taipei, Taiwan, this is an ambitious study of how an unprovable teacher-student "rape" case fans out to affect the lives of various other people.

Altschul Auditorium

Tuesday, Nov 10, 8:10 pm

IF THESE WALLS COULD TALK 2

These Walls Could Talk" tells the stories of three lesbian couples -- who live in the same house at different periods of time -- who are at a crossroads in their lives.

Cosponsored by Spectrum

Altschul Auditorium

Wednesday, Nov 11, 8:10 pm

VACHINA MONOLOGUES

Since 2003, this feminist play, which comes from the US and is committed to the elimination of gender based violence, had incited a vagina hurricane that blew all over Mainland China. Performed by different crews in various ways.

Cosponsored by the Greater China Initiative

Altschul Auditorium

Thursday, Nov 12, 6:00 pm

VESSEL

A sea captain navigates through loopholes in international law to provide abortions on the high seas.

Alice’s Café, followed by a Happy Hour cosponsored by SIPASA

Snacks will be provided