RMIT University’s School of Global, Urban and Social Studies and the Centre for Urban Research are proud to present the launch of The Public City: Essays in Honour of Paul Mees.

The Public City, edited by Beau Beza and Brendan Gleeson, is a tribute to one of the world’s great activist-scholars—the late Paul Mees—whose urban ideal counted on a watchful, confident and well-informed citizenry to work collectively in a quest for fair and just cities. The Public City is largely a critique of neo-liberalism and its arguably negative influence on urban prospects.

Book launch and oration by:
