This FREE safety training is provided by the Commercial Vehicle Safety Alliance (CVSA) through a USDOT grant. The training will provide truck operators with the tools you need to develop an in-house driver safety program and comply with USDOT regulations! Also, it's a great opportunity to get your questions answered and to tune-up your existing program.

There's NO CHARGE for this three-hour session, and you'll walk away with a better knowledge of the regulations and the materials you need to support your driver safety program!
