Advancing Responsible Business Practices in Land, Construction and Real Estate

Wednesday, 21 October 2015
5.45pm for 6.00—7.00pm followed by networking drinks
Lendlease, 30 The Bond, 30 Hickson Rd, Millers Point

The Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors (RICS) and the Global Compact Network Australia (GCNA) invite you to join Dr Sean Tompkins, Chief Executive Officer, RICS during his upcoming visit to Australia, for a panel discussion and networking event to launch Advancing Responsible Business Practices in Land, Construction and Real Estate Use and Investment—a joint publication from RICS and the United Nations Global Compact.

The land, construction and real estate sector represents more than half of global wealth. It is also one of the most influential sectors when it comes to impacting the health and well-being of people and the environment. The new resource from RICS and the UN Global Compact seeks to raise awareness, increase capacity and give practical guidance for responsible business within the sector.

This event will bring together a select group of industry professionals and sustainability experts to hear from Sean Tompkins during his upcoming visit to Australia. Sean will then join a panel discussion to explore sustainability best practice, trends and continuing challenges in the sector.

About us

The Global Compact Network Australia is the Australian, business-led network of the United Nations Global Compact, the world’s largest corporate sustainability initiative focused on universal principles in the areas of human rights, labour standards, the environment and anti-corruption and the role of the private sector in sustainable development.

The Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors is the world’s leading professional body for qualifications and standards in land, property and construction.
