CALL FOR PAPERS
SIR’s spring’s 2020 print journal

Sigma Iota Rho’s Journal of International Relations is accepting article submissions for its spring 2020 print journal. The DEADLINE is Friday, January 24, 2020. Email sirjournal.print@gmail.com with your submission.

Submission RULES

1. Authors must be current students and SIR members
2. Articles must be original and previously unpublished
3. Articles must be between 2,000 and 6,000 words in length
4. Articles must pertain to the field of International Studies
5. Articles may include charts, graphs, or other pertinent illustrations

Submission GUIDELINES

1. Submit in Microsoft Word .docx format with 1” margins, 12-point Times New Roman font, and double-space
2. Include a cover page (author’s full name, email address that needs to be active for at least 1 year after submission, telephone number (preferably cell phone), university’s name, title of the article, and a physical address (No P.O. Boxes and it needs to be active for at least 1 year after submission), a 200-word abstract, and a brief biography of the author
3. Complete the bibliography & footnotes according to the Chicago Manual of Style, 16th edition

If selected for SIR’s print journal, as an author you will receive two copies of the journal gratis. They will be sent to the physical address (No P.O. Boxes) that you provide with your submission.

The Sigma Iota Rho (SIR) Journal of International Relations is an undergraduate journal of international studies housed in the Library of Congress. The Journal has a circulation of over 3,000 copies, which are distributed to over 160 undergraduate international relations programs and APSIA graduate international relations schools. Each edition includes a featured article by a leading voice in international relations; previous headliners have included Barack Obama, George W. Bush, Joseph R. Biden, Madeleine Albright, Henry A. Kissinger, and Pascal Lamy.