Help us stock the SPARTAN OPEN PANTRY

The Spartan Open Pantry is in need.

The Pantry’s sole purpose is to ensure that no one in our Spartan community goes hungry. We can help.

Staff Senate encourages Faculty and Staff to pick up some items next time you are at the store!

Donation Bins located throughout campus,

List of needed items attached.
Faculty and Staff---

Let's Stock the Spartan Open Pantry

This list attempts to take into account that while some students have access to a small kitchen some may not, or may only have a microwave. All non-perishable foods are welcome.

Most commonly given out items:
- Breads
- Canned vegetables (especially high fiber)
- Canned fruit
- Canned meat (especially chicken)
- Canned beans
- Dried Fruit
- Granola bars
- Trail Mix
- Boxed pasta
- Pasta sauces (non-glass preferred)
- Canned soup (both condensed and non-condensed, and microwavable)
- Dried beans
- Chili
- Peanut butter
- Powdered Milk
- Jelly
- Rice (small bags)
- Instant mashed potatoes
- Breakfast cereals
- Condiments (mayo, ketchup, mustard)
- Salt and Pepper
- Salad Dressing (Ranch and Italian)
- Cooking oil
- Small Toiletries
- Soap
- Shampoo
- Conditioner
- Toothpaste
- Toothbrush
- Deodorant

The SOP is located in the fellowship hall of College Place UMC at 509 Tate St., on the corner of Tate and Spring Garden Street. Dis- tributions are made each Tuesday evening from 5 pm until 9pm or by appointment in an emergency. College Place UMC is located directly across from the Weatherspoon Museum of Art. Parking is available for volunteers and those picking up food.