Gerard Arceri, Penn State (So., FO, St. James, N.Y.)
* had two goals and one assist, won 20 of 27 face-offs and had 16 ground balls in Penn State’s 15-8 win over Stony Brook

Brian Begley, Loyola (Senior, SSDM, Morristown, N.J.)
* had two goals, two assists, five ground balls and one caused turnover and did not allow a goal to the man he was guarding as Loyola defeated Johns Hopkins 12-5

Griffin Brown, Colgate (So., M, McLean, Va.)
* had six goals and two assists, including four straight during the decisive third quarter, as Colgate defeated Cornell 14-11; also had a goal against Binghamton

JD Colarusso, Albany (Sr., G, Poughquag, N.Y.)
* made 10 saves while allowing just three goals for a .769 save percentage in Albany’s 15-3 win over Syracuse

Mike Fletcher, Quinnipiac (Jr., A, Syracuse, N.Y.)
* after having four career goals prior to the game, scored four goals, including the game-winner in OT, in Quinnipiac’s 12-11 win over Brown; also had an assist for a five-point day

Nick Hruby, Air Force (Sr., A, Coppell, Texas)
* scored six of his team’s eight goals in the 8-7 win over Marist; three of his goals came during the 4-0 run to end the game, including the winner with 3:19 to play

Tahoka Nanticoke, Albany (Fr., A, Six Nations, Ont.)
* scored five goals in his collegiate debut as Albany defeated Syracuse 15-3

Joe Robertson, Duke (Fr., A, Charlottesville, Va.)
* scored four goals, all in the fourth quarter, as Duke rallied from four goals back to beat Denver 15-12; scored three straight to take Duke from down 12-11 to up 14-12

Danny Seibel, Villanova (Sr., A, Wakefield, Mass.)
* scored four goals, including the game-winner, as Villanova defeated Yale 10-9 in overtime; also had two fourth-quarter goals

Ethan Walker, Denver (So., A, Peterborough, Ont.)
* scored six goals and added two assists for eight points in Denver’s 15-12 loss to Duke