Guidelines for the Submission of Book Reviews in Electronic Form

A Book Review is a form of literary criticism on a single book and its author. It analyses content, style, merit and relevance.

1. Book Reviews should be submitted in digital form and can be either MS Word .doc or .docx files

2. Book Reviews should not exceed 800 words

3. Book Reviews should have the following format:
   - Line spacing: double-space (2.0),
   - Alignment: justified
   - Font: times new roman
   - Font size: 12
   - No white lines, only indents to separate paragraphs

4. Reviews should be written in British English (e.g. not “organization, labor, program, center” but “organisation, labour, programme, centre”)

5. At the top of the review, include the complete reference of the book reviewed in the following format: Lobell, Steven E., Norrin M. Ripsman & Jeffrey W. Talliaferro (eds.), 2009, Neoclassical Realism, The State, and Foreign Policy. Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, xiii + 322pp., ISBN 978-0521731928, €58.00/$84.99 (hb). The complete reference of the book is included in the e-mail we’ve sent you

6. At the end of the review, list your names as a book reviewer and your affiliation

7. No tables, graphs or images allowed

8. Book reviews should contain no footnotes; references to other works should be incorporated in the text; page references should be given when quotations from the book are included
