Workshops for the 68th United Nations Civil Society Conference

Thank you for your interest in organising a workshop at the 68th UN Civil Society Conference that will take place from 26 to 28 August 2019 in Salt Lake City, Utah, USA.

The following are guidelines and requirements for your application:

- Workshops should be action-oriented with a focus on learning, innovation and audience participation
- Each workshop will be 75 minutes long, additional 30 minutes for setup
- It is suggested that the panel includes a moderator and no more than three speakers from different organizations demonstrating partnership
- Priority will be given to applications submitted by civil society organisations (CSOs) formally associated with the UN Department of Global Communications (DGC) and SLC/Utah-based CSOs
- Proposals must be submitted in English
- Workshop subjects cannot be commercial in nature. This means that no services or products may be advertised or offered at the workshop

Please note that workshops must relate to the overall theme: Inclusive, Safe, Resilient, Sustainable Cities and Communities (SDG11) and one of the following subjects:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Economic Development</th>
<th>Climate Change</th>
<th>Peaceful Societies</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Youth Empowerment</td>
<td>Infrastructure</td>
<td>Emerging Technologies</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Women &amp; Girls</td>
<td>Media and Communication Methods</td>
<td>Interfaith Dialogue</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- The deadline for submitting your application is Friday, 17 May 2019
- Notification of successful applications for workshops will be made no later than Monday, 10 June 2019
- There will be a flat fee of approximately $300 to cover the costs for the venue and basic technical equipment including power point projection, one (1) table, chairs, one (1) microphone and laptop connectivity. Cost of additional services will be listed in a Catalog of Services that will be provided shortly. Workshops organisers must bring their own laptops
- Each workshop organiser must assign a rapporteur and will be responsible for submitting a short summary of the workshop no later than 9 September 2019 to the Conference Workshops Sub-Committee
