On April 30, 2019, U.S. Senator Cory Booker (D-NJ), Rep. Pramila Jayapal (D-WA), and Rep. Adam Smith (D-WA) re-introduced this bill to protect immigrants. The Act would:

- End the use of private prisons and county jails for immigration detention over a three-year phase-out period
- Ensure all immigrants receive individualized and fair bond hearings by ending the use of mandatory detention of certain immigrants and requiring DHS to establish probable cause of removability within 48 hours of detention
- Improve detention standards for detention facilities housing immigrants by requiring DHS to match the civil detention standards set forth by the American Bar Association's Civil Immigration Detention Standards
- Require the DHS Office of Inspector General to conduct random spot checks of all immigration detention facilities and stiffen penalties for facilities found to be in violation of DHS' improved civil detention standards
- Require DHS to investigate all deaths of immigrants in its custody and issue a public report within 60 days

This bill directly opposes the policies Attorney General Barr has proposed to strip asylum seekers of their right to due process, in violation of the Constitution.
