Manama – Bahrain Today.

Bahraini student Jaffer Jassim Majid, was arrested from Bahrain international airport last night, after being kidnapped in Jordan for more than 30 days.

The Jordanian authorities have removed Jaffer from the country, and refused to give any information about him during the period of his disappearance.

Family sources have mentioned that Jaffer’s father was waiting for him at the airport, where he asked about his son after the airplane landed, but wasn’t given any information.
The source assured that Jaffer was on the plane heading to Bahrain on Thursday 26th March 2015, but Jaffer wasn’t seen leaving the airport, which made his family believe that he was arrested.

Some activists’ expressed their concern that Jaffer might have been tortured, as his news was cut off since his arrest in Jordan, by Jordanian security forces. He is facing a sentence of six months.
